BROWSE THE MOST UNIQUE OPEN-AIR MARKET IN OHIO AT THE 29TH ANNUAL OHIO RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL

HARVEYSBURG, Ohio (August 16, 2018). . .The Ohio Renaissance Festival opens its gates September 1 for its 29th annual season. Every Saturday, Sunday, and Labor Day through October 28 visitors to the festival can browse the most unique open-air market in Ohio. Featuring handmade products including clothing, jewelry, pottery, footwear, weaponry, and home décor items, it's a shopper's paradise of over 160 world-class artisans.

Here are just a few of the world-class artisans in the marketplace:

- Art of Ed Beard Jr features original collectible artwork in various subject matter and technique.
- Danny Boy Pipes features handmade pipes and accessories.
- Dragon's Head Forge demonstrates blacksmithing and sells functional and decorative items.
- Add to your closet with items from Authentic Wardrobe, featuring menswear and womenswear.
- Battle safely with Safer Swords, made from soft foam.
- Brown Cow Art features handmade leather items. Custom orders can also be made.

The Ohio Renaissance Festival artisan marketplace also features demonstrating artisans. Experience time honored crafts such as glassblowing, blacksmithing, forging, leather tooling, candle making, coin stamping, jewelry making, and boot making. See the product being made and take a one-of-a-kind piece of history home with you.

About the Ohio Renaissance Festival:

The Ohio Renaissance Festival is located in Warren County, just 2 miles west of I-71 or 15 miles east of I-75 on State Route 73. One of the largest renaissance festivals in the nation, the Ohio Renaissance Festival features a 16th Century English Village on 30+ acres, a nine-weekend season, and welcomes nearly 175,000 visitors annually. The Ohio Renaissance Festival is the flagship event produced by Brimstone & Fire, LLC and held at Renaissance Park Event Center. For more information, please visit www.renfestival.com.
